REEKS FINANCE M. C. A. BUILDING

Under Venizelos So Impressed With Organization's Army Work He Would Have It Located In Athens.

Telegraph to The Freeman.
Paris, December 28.—Premier Venizelos of Greece, the dominating figure who stood like a rock against nationalism in the Hellenic kingdom, has volunteered with certain influential Greeks to finance the action of a Y. M. C. A. building in Athens if the American Red Triangle will furnish Secretaries, so deeply is he impressed by the organization's work in the war. This has been announced by P. D. Mann, a Y. M. C. A. secretary, who worked with the Greek forces at Makka before and after the Bulgar invasion. Mr. Venizelos, Mr. Alexander, governor general of Macedonia, and other prominent Greeks offered to furnish the money for a Y. M. C. A. building on the lines recommended by the Boardman of Jersey City, to association work on the same basis as that in America, France and England to meet the requirements of returning Greek soldiers.
Hundreds of Greeks who returned defend their native land and who enjoyed Y. M. C. A. facilities in Macedonia started the demand for the triangle work. The Greeks offering to finance the project ask that workers experienced in all branches of "Y" activity be sent from New York. While they would like to have Mr. Boardman, who inspired the project for a large city Y. M. C. A., he was forced to return home after an accident and unable to carry through his plans. They will be followed out though. Mr.
Langum and Harvey A. Henderson of Goodland, Ind., operated a Y. M.
A. hut with the Greek and Allied troops at Salonika, where it was estimated 10,000 men were served daily.

A coffee room where Turkish coffee was served for the small sum of 5 centas (about one-tenth of a penny) proved to be the main drawing card of the hut at Salonika, which attracted so much attention that demands came in from all sections for the hut and workers. Mr. Mann, Henderson and Mr. Langum then succeeded in getting three others erected, one at Tumba, a large training camp where 30,000 Greeks are stationed, proving especially popular.
A large hut was erected at Athens and another at Cairo, not far from there. Hundreds of books were purchased for the hut libraries and Mr.
Langum reports that the need of more reading matter and especially of books that will aid in the educational program of the Y. M. C. A. is urgent.

So eager are the Greeks for reading matter that the two Y. M. C. A. secretaries used a contribution of $3, 000 from Mr. Alexander for books.
The name of the governor general of Macedonia was stamped on each volume and it is planned to make the books the nucleus of a large library at Athens. Another notable contribution toward the work was made by Premier Venizelos who gave $10,000 for the erection of the hut at Tumba.

ARGENTINA A STRONG ALLY

Regarded Far More Valuable Than Spain to United States and Other Nations Fighting Germany.

When the congress of Argentina voted to sever relations with Germany the people of the most powerful neutral left in the ranks of the pacifists showed their determination to join the allies. Argentina could work more good to the allies than could Spain. Her war potentiality is greater, for while her army is only 24,000 strong, compared to the 140,000 which Spain maintains, according to a publicist, her wealth far surpasses that of the older nation. Argentina is young, strong, clean-limbed. Spain is old, fuddled and doddering.

The South American republic was the last dangerous nation whose people turned against the Kaiser. Its entrance into antagonism to Teutonicism would mark the final and crowning blunder of German diplomacy.

None of the passive nations could give the allies so much in the way of vital help as could Argentina. After the United States, her sympathy and determined support are more to be valued by the democratic powers than any other unembellished nation. Now she is giving her lots to follow her great Northern sister into the good war.

Argentina's population is only 8,000, 000, in comparison to the 20,000,000 of Spain, but her manhood is developing while Spain's is anything but accre-tive. Her character is made of compulsion forces, the best and hardest of the adventurous races.

World's Finest Church.

November 19 is the anniversary of the dedication of St. Peter's in Rome in 665. This largest Christian house of worship was begun about 1870. In 1560 Michelangelo was put in charge who redesigned the dome. The height to the top of this dome is 455 feet, and the building is one of the most important in the world.

and six children. Mrs. A. McElrath of Marlborough, George Grief of New Canaan, Conn.; Mrs. Ralph Wygant of North Chatham; Frank Grief of Newburgh; Charles and Carrie Grief residing at home; and Arthur Grief, 26 years been a resident of Marlborough and during that time has made many friends and acquaintances. Send to place. Previous to coming to Marlborough he was a successful New York business man, and the same success followed him here, and he made a success of fruit growing.
He was the propagator of the famous Perfection raspberry. Sincere sympathy of the community is extended to the family in their sudden beroavement. The funeral services were held from his late home on Thursday afternoon at 1:30, the Rev.
Lee Dean of Christ Church officiat-

BATTLE FIELD DEATH TEST

Minimum Quantity of 33 Per Cent Solution of Dinon Recommended to Academy of Medicine.

Uncertainty as to whether a person be alive or dead is especially great on the battlefield, and prompt decision in such cases is far more important than in civil life. Writes a correspondent at the front. Dr. A. Teron has just recommended to the French Academy of Medicine a new test, these already known having proved insufficient. The best of these latter has been the injection of fumes of a device by hand.
But even this is uncertain, for in some cases men who are still alive do not show the green coloration of the whites of their eyes following injection, which the test is supposed to produce.
Dr. Teron recommends placing in the eye a minute quantity of a 33 per cent solution of Dinon (ethyl-morphine), glycerine. If death has already taken place, nothing happens, but if the man has the slightest trace of life still in him the whites of his eyes will immediately turn purplish-red and swell, but this inflammation will disappear rapidly and leave no ill effect.

Santa Not Enemy Alien.

Of what nationality is Santa Claus? a friend asks. Of almost every nationality, we would say. If you mean to ask the derivation of the name, it is a corrupted form of the Holland Dutch name for St. Nicholas and has an "enemy alien" taint. The saint himself was a native of Patara in the province of Lydia, Asia Minor, and was bishop of Myra in the same province.
